

Vice Chancellor GCWUF Prof Dr Zill-i-Huma Nazli Attended the 3-Day Rectors' Conference 2023

Vice Chancellor GCWUF Prof Dr Zill-i-Huma Nazli being welcomed at Rectors' Conference 2023 in Islamabad today.

Vice Chancellor GCWUF Prof Dr Zill-i-Huma Nazli attended the 3-day Rectors' Conference 2023 on 1-3 December 2023. The Association of Private Sector Universities of Pakistan - (APSUP) organized the Rectors' Conference. The conference's theme was "Sustainable Workforce Development: HR, Innovation, and Technology in Harmony."

Worthy Vice Chancellor participated in the enriching discussions and collaborative talks. The event brought together various influential figures, including industry leaders, educationalists, vice-chancellors, and rectors. Their collective efforts fueled enriching discussions, nurturing a collaborative spirit that resonated with innovation and actively contributed to shaping the future landscape of education. The conference was also attended by the Chairman HEC Prof. Dr. Mukhtar Ahmad, Chairman PHEC Prof. Dr. Shahid Minor, Provincial Minister for Education Mr. Mansoor Qadir, Federal Minister for Tourism Mr. Wasi Shah, and many renowned dignitaries.

Vice Chancellor GCWUF Prof. Dr. Zill-i-Huma Nazli called on Chairman HEC Prof. Dr. Mukhtar

Vice Chancellor GCWUF Prof. Dr. Zill-i-Huma Nazli called on Chairman HEC Prof. Dr. Mukhtar today at HEC. She presented the progress report of the university to the honourable Chairman HEC. She brought to his kind notice various issues of the academics such as the one-time degree attestation of PhD Arabic and MPhil and PhD Nutritional Sciences. Chairman HEC, very graciously, approved the sanction of the NOC to resolve the years-long-standing problems of the students of these degree programs. Mr. Chairman appreciated the pace of the progress of the university and displayed great satisfaction in the able leadership of the university in materialising all ongoing development projects.

Empowering Women on Wheels: Interloop Limited Distributes Subsidized Motorcycles in Collaboration with GCWUF

Under the Women on Wheels program in Faisalabad, trained women, holding a valid driving license, received subsidized motorcycles from Interloop Limited in a ceremony at Government College Women University. The ceremony was attended by Chairman Interloop, Vice Chancellor GCWUF, key officials of the collaborating organizations, trained bikers, and staff of the women university.

The chief guest, Vice-Chancellor Professor Dr. Zill-i-Huma Nazli, thanked Chairman Interloop Musaddiq Zulqarnain and the Salman Sufi Foundation for their special efforts to make local women self-sufficient. She highlighted the importance of women's empowerment in education and various fields, emphasizing the need for women to have the choice of riding.

Chairman Interloop Musaddiq Zulqarnain praised the initiative of providing 2,000 women with free bikes, enabling them to easily access education and employment. He emphasized addressing the challenges faced by women riders. The initiative aims to empower Pakistani women to achieve their goals without dependency on others, similar to women in other countries. He thanked Vice-Chancellor GCWUF for providing a secure location on the university grounds for training.

It is noteworthy that out of forty-eight recipients of the bikes, twenty-six belong to the women university as students or as employees. Women University always remains on its toes to materialize projects of women development for their sustainable life.

One Day Tour to Parliament of Pakistan

Government College Women University Faisalabad conducted a seminar and awareness walk regarding gender-based violence in the context of internationally observed 16 Days of Activism against GBV. Provincial Ombudsperson Nabila Hakim Ali attended the event as the Chief Guest. The event was collaboratively organized by the Women Development Centre, DSA, and the Department of Sociology under the patronage of Vice Chancellor, Professor Dr. Zill-i-Huma Nazli. A large number of teachers and students participated in the walk along with the Provincial Ombudsperson, senior police officials, registrar GCWUF Mr. Asif A Malik, Controller of Examination Ms. Rizwana Tanvir Randhawa, Coordinator Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Prof. Dr. Ayesha Sameen, and heads of all teaching departments.

Director Students Affairs and Focal Person Women Development Centre Dr Asma Aziz delivered the welcome speech and explained objectives of the event. The Chief Guest, Ms. Nabila Hakim Khan praised the Government of Pakistan for passing strict laws against gender-based violence as these are made to protect the rights of women against social, political, or cultural antagonism. She informed the students about the aims and objectives of the Provincial Ombudsperson's Office. She urged the students to raise their voices for their rights and report the abuse and violence against them so that law enforcement agencies could help the victims in time.

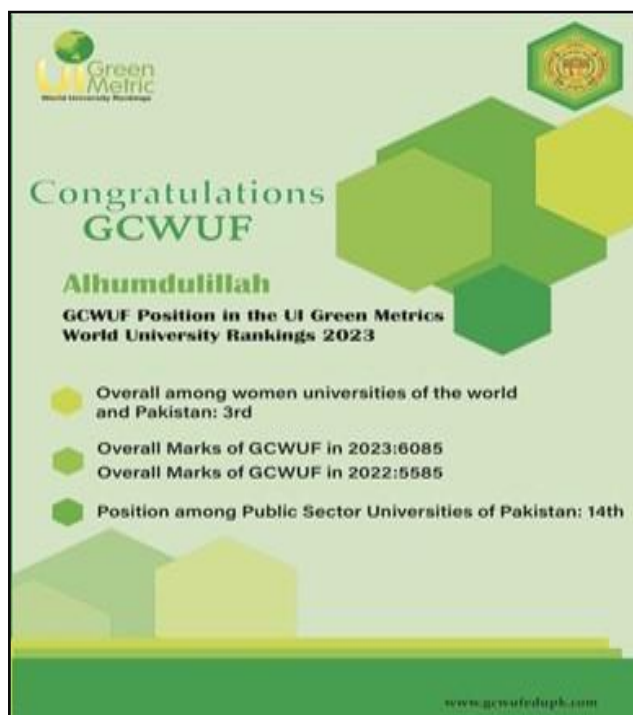

Dr. Abid, in his address, emphasized demolishing social taboos and stereotypes against feminine gender. He emphasized ensuring women's protection and providing equal rights. Talking about the role of the Police department in this regard, he explained that the establishment of the front desks in police stations, Tahaffuz Markaz, and Anti-Women Harassment Cells is a clear manifestation of the institution fulfilling its responsibility.

SSP Operations Dr. Rizwan Ahmed Khan said that women's awareness of laws is the guarantee of their protection. Referring to hybrid war, he urged the teachers and students to learn strategies to safeguard their privacy. By doing this, they can protect themselves from cybercrimes and threats to their personal spaces. He introduced a positive and supportive face of Punjab police that is ever ready to serve all distressed people. His speech led to a question-answer session. Inspector Gulnaz and other police officials also addressed the audience. In the end, Registrar GCWUF Mr. Asif Malik thanked the distinguished guests on behalf of the Vice Chancellor GCWUF. He proudly explained the strategic approach of the university in becoming a harassment free campus that ensures a protected environment for its students and staff.

GCWUF in UI Green Metric World University Rankings 2023

By the Grace of Allah Almighty, GCWUF has been ranked in the 580th position out of 1183 universities worldwide, securing the 14th spot among all Pakistani Public Sector Universities and the 3rd Women university globally and in Pakistan. GCWUF has been actively engaged in global competitions for the past ten years and is consistently achieving commendable positions among its counterparts.

Worthy Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Zill-i-Huma Nazli, in her special message, appreciated Dr. Aasma Khalid, Director, Quality Enhancement Cell, and her team for highlighting the university's outstanding achievements, with a specific focus on its exemplary performance in Infrastructure, Transportation, Education and research, and Energy and Climate Change. She remarked that GCWUF's elevated position in the UI Green Metric World University Rankings 2023 not only mirrors the university's dedication to sustainability but also nurtures a culture of environmental responsibility. She highlighted the university's initiatives to promote awareness among both faculty and students regarding green campus practices and environment-friendly policies.

Prof. Dr. Zill-i-Huma Nazli extended heartfelt congratulations to the faculty, students, and administrative staff of the university on this splendid achievement in the UI Green Metric World University Rankings 2023.

Safe Food City Project: Food Safety a Shared Responsibility

In collaboration with the Punjab Food Authority, the Department of Food Science and Technology, GCWUF organized an awareness seminar entitled "Safe Food City Project: Food Safety a Shared Responsibility" under the umbrella of GCWUF Commercialization Wing. Prof. Dr. Zilli Huma Nazli (Vice Chancellor GCWUF) was the Patron in Chief. Prof. Dr. Aysha Sameen (Patron, Chairperson Department of Food Science and Technology) inaugurated the session with her preamble. Mr. Muhammad Asif A Malik

(Registrar, GCWUF) also embraced the event and shared a few words of wisdom. Prof. Dr. Aysha Sameen, Chairperson Department of Food Science and Technology presented souvenirs to the guests as a token of remembrance.

As the keynote speaker, Dr. Muhammad Qasim Raza (Deputy Director Operations, Punjab Food Authority) talked about the pivotal connection of safe food products with human health. He emphasized the implementation of food safety management systems, HACCP Analysis in food processing/manufacturing premises for the production of hygienic and nutritious food choices for masses in localities. He highlighted his insights and expertise to ensure safe food availability for everyone to boost their nutrition status.

Afterward, other guest speakers including Dr. Syeda Ayesha Batool (Master Trainer, Punjab Food Authority) and Ms. Tayaba Liaquat (Nutrition Officer, Punjab Food Authority) addressed a comprehensive lecture on food adulteration, food hazards (biological, physical, and chemical) and associated risks. Lastly, an interactive question and answer session was conducted to clarify the queries of students. A successful seminar aimed at delivering insights into sustaining a healthy diet tailored for university students. In the end, Prof. Dr. Saima Akram (Chairperson, Department of Mathematics) concluded the session and delivered a vote of thanks.

Participation of GCWUF in 5th All Pakistan Nutritionists Convention-2023

The Head of the Department of Nutritional Sciences attended the 5th All Pakistan Nutritionists Convention 2023 at the University of Agriculture Faisalabad. The Nutritionist and Dietitians Society (NDS) organized this convention on 27th November 2023, at Iqbal Auditorium, University of Agriculture, Faisalabad. The main agenda of the convention was “Malnutrition Deserves to be a Parliamentary Debate in Pakistan” and the special focus was to highlight the importance of Nutrition policy-making and significantly raise the voice against Malnutrition.

Chairman NDS, Dn. Hussnain Muaviah, Pro Vice Chancellor UAF, Prof. Dr. Muhammad Sarwar, Dean FFNHS, Prof. Dr. Masood Sadiq Butt, Dietician, Ms. Surriya Ikhtiyar, and nutritionists from all over Pakistan participated in the event. From the Department of Nutritional Sciences, GCWUF, HOD, four faculty members and almost 85 students participated in the convention with full zeal and zest. The students of BS (HND) participated in the Food Products display and showcased some innovative functional foods i.e., red tea, Diabetic Buns, Fruit pizza, and Chickpea bread. The Incharge, Department of Nutritional Sciences, GCWUF, Dr. Madiha Ilyas, received a shield of participation as Guest of Honor from the Chairman NDS, Mr. Hussnain Muaviah.

One Day Workshop on "Learn CANVA"

The Department of Information Technology, Government College Women University Faisalabad organized a One Day Workshop on "Learn CANVA" under United Nations SDG-9 “Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure” on Tuesday, 28th November 2023 in the IT lab of the department. The workshop’s objective was to impart advanced skills in designing and crafting resumes, video-making proficiency, and refining card designing expertise through the utilization of CANVA. Faculty members and students of Arabic, Botany, Applied Psychology, Nutritional Sciences, English, Physics, Zoology, Mathematics, Chemistry, Food

Science, Economics, and Physical Education participated in the training sessions. Certificates of commendation were distributed to the IT faculty and students, acknowledging their outstanding contributions and achievements. Chairperson, Department of Mathematics Prof Dr Saima Akram as Coordinator of the Faculty of Science and Technology, and Mr. Tariq Shahzad, Director of IT Services distributed certificates among the successful students of the Department of Information Technology and appreciated the efforts of the head of the IT Department.

شاعر سجاد حیدر کے ساتھ ادبی نشست

28 نومبر 2023ء، شعبہ اردو گورنمنٹ کالج ویمن یونیورسٹی فیصل آباد میں برمنگھم یو-کے کے معروف اور جدید لب و لہجے کے شاعر سجاد حیدر کے ساتھ ادبی نشست کا اہتمام کیا گیا۔ سر پرست اعلیٰ وائس چانسلر پروفیسر ڈاکٹر ظل ہما نازلی نے معاشرے میں مثبت قدروں کے فروغ پر زور دیا۔ امن اور بھائی چارے کے لیے ادباء کو اہم کردار ادا کرنا ہو گا۔ ڈاکٹر صدف نقوی نے مہمان گرامی کو خوش آمدید کہا۔ سجاد حیدر نے طالبات کو مثبت سرگرمیوں میں حصہ لینے کے لیے کہا۔ علاوہ ازیں انہوں نے اپنا کلام بھی پیش کیا۔ ڈاکٹر رخسانہ بلوچ کو آرڈینیٹر فیکلٹی آف ہیومنٹیز اینڈ لینگویجز نے مہمان گرامی کا شکریہ ادا کیا تقریب کی فوکل پرسن محترمہ با زغہ قندیل تھیں۔ تقریب میں فیکلٹی ممبران اور طالبات نے کثیر تعداد میں شرکت کی مشاعرے کی نظامت کے فرائض صدر شعبہ ڈاکٹر صدف نقوی نے انجام دیئے

